WEEK COMMENCING 20/04/2018

Principal's Message...

Dear Parents/Carers,

After a lovely break, we have all had an exciting, yet busy week! As you are aware the highlight of the week has been our OFSTED visit. We are not allowed to announce our grading until the report has been finalised and published in 19 days. We did however get the result we wanted. Our students are an asset to our school and I truly believe they are amazing young adults with very bright futures. To reward students for their impeccable behaviour, we decided to buy all students an ice cream in this heat! I am very proud of the staff and students at TKAW and wish you a lovely, break over the weekend.

They also took part in a design challenge for a new test rig. Here are some images of the visit. This trip was supported by DWP (Department of Work and Pensions) by schools advisor Mrs Maxine Sandland. A huge thank you to Mr Sandland for giving students this brilliant opportunity.
